

To ensure the continuity of operations at the office and campsite, it is critical to address the current water supply disruption caused by a broken and leaking pipe, which the maintenance team has been unable to locate for now. Given the urgency of maintaining a steady water supply, we propose sourcing water externally via a tanker as an immediate solution.