Background information

Trinity Nyakabingo Mines, there is a need to ensure that accounting records, financial statements, and tax compliance accurately reflect the current state of operations and asset utilization. Over time, asset movements, acquisitions, disposals, and changes in usage have created potential discrepancies that could affect the reliability of financial reporting, internal controls, and tax compliance. To address these challenges, management has engaged BDO Rwanda to conduct a comprehensive statutory audit and tax audit and compliance services for the financial year ending 31 December 2025, covering both interim and final audit phases. The engagement will include a thorough review of accounting records, verification of financial statements, assessment of internal controls, and evaluation of compliance with International Accounting Standards (IAS), International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), and applicable Rwandan tax and regulatory requirements. The audit will culminate in the preparation of independent audit reports with an opinion on the financial statements, accompanied by a management letter with actionable recommendations and tax advisory guidance. This process will strengthen the credibility, accuracy, and completeness of financial reporting, support effective decision-making, and ensure full compliance with IAS/IFRS and local regulations.
